Chairman's View

Dear Berryfielders,

Welcome to the Autumn edition of Our Berryfields.

I hope you all enjoyed your summer and made the most of the sunshine! We certainly kept busy with a range of community events, and it was lovely to see so many families enjoying the fun fair, children's fun days and the Community Friday Nights. A big thank you goes to our office staff for organising these, and to Cllrs Ward and Green for helping at the children's fun days.

Now that the weather is turning wet and windy, we've got some brilliant festivals lined up to lift our spirits – Diwali, Halloween, Bonfire Night and Christmas. So, a very Happy Diwali, Halloween, Christmas and New Year to you all!

As we bid farewell to a lovely summer, we're already looking forward to the autumn and winter events! Get ready to celebrate with us at these upcoming events:

- Halloween event (October 29th)
- Christmas Afternoon Tea (December 5th)
- Santa's grotto & Christmas market (December 14th)

Keep an eye on our social media pages for more details.

As always, we will also be holding a Remembrance Day Service at Roman Park. Please come along if you can.

We're making progress on several key community projects:

- Business Fair: To showcase and support our local businesses, we're planning a business fair at Roman Park. A working committee was formed, and a survey carried out to gauge the interest. Thank you those who responded – we will review the feedback and publish next steps in the coming months.
- More trees and hedges across Berryfields: We are delighted that our application to the Woodland Trust for free trees has been approved. These will be planted in Roman Park and Parish-owned land once they arrive.
- Book Swap Stores: Green Ridge Primary and AVA schools have kindly agreed to host the book swap stores. Exact locations will be finalised before installation.
- Electronic Speed Signs: We have invested in a new solar-powered Moveable Vehicle Activated Sign (MVAS) to help improve road safety, with installation due in the coming months.
- Bus Shelters: We liaised with Bucks Council, Consortium and the bus company. All parties are in agreement to go ahead with this. There are still steps to complete and funding to secure, but we'll keep you updated.
- Roman Park Improvements: We're in the early stages of planning exciting improvements at Roman Park, including a new car park, landscaping, and more. The car park in particular will make life much easier for allotment holders. Updates will follow as the project develops.

Community Services

- Roman Park Food Bank: The food bank is open every Thursday morning between 11am and 12.15pm. As winter approaches, we need your continued support through food donations and volunteers. Donations can be dropped off outside the hall at any time.

Finally, I'd like to wish all children a wonderful new school year and look forward to seeing you at our upcoming events.

As always, your feedback is welcome, so please get in touch with your thoughts and suggestions. Stay safe and remember your coats!

– Parish Councillor, Berryfields

I live here—just like you—and care deeply about the future of our community. I'm honoured to serve as a Parish Councillor and am committed to listening, learning, and working together to make a positive difference in our neighbourhood.

Since moving to Berryfields from London in 2016, my family and I have grown to love the area. My children attended AVA Primary, and over the years, we've truly appreciated the warmth, diversity, and community spirit that make Berryfields so special.

With over 20 years of experience in the IT sector, I'm passionate about using my skills to support well-informed decisions, encourage fresh thinking, and help shape a more inclusive and sustainable future for our community. Outside of work, I enjoy gardening, painting, cooking, exploring the local area on foot, and travelling when time allows.

I look forward to meeting more residents, supporting local projects, and playing a part in shaping the future of Berryfields.

A GUIDE TO 11+ EXAMS

by Mayookha Sekhar, year 9

INTRODUCTION

The 11+ is an entrance examination that determines admission into grammar schools; some private schools also require a good 11+ score for admission. Many of you would be planning to take this examination at the beginning of your Year 6. I also wrote the 11+ exam and I now go to a grammar school. I wanted to share what I found helpful in preparing for the exam.

WHAT IS THE 11+

The 11 plus assesses what you know and have learnt along with problem-solving and logical thinking. Of the four sections, two (English & Maths) are taught at school and the other two are not. Both of the reasoning sections test you on problem-solving and logical thinking. Therefore, these skills need to be practiced at home.

Sections:

- Verbal Reasoning
- Non-Verbal Reasoning
- Maths
- English

REVISION GUIDES & RESOURCES

Effective revision is very important when practicing for the 11+ as cramming a lot of information will not be helpful. Except for the English section, all questions are multiple-choice. I have listed below what I found useful when revising.

Recommended Resources:

- CGP 11+ Books (Can't recommend this enough!)
- Schofield & Sims 11+ Books
- CGP Website
- Bond Website (Free, but an account is needed)

MY EXPERIENCE

From personal experience, I've found that consistency is key. Short, daily practice sessions are more effective than infrequent, long study periods. I also found doing past papers or practice papers really helpful. When you come to a question you don't know, don't guess. Instead, circle it and move on. Once you've marked your paper, return to the ones you got wrong or couldn't do. Write down what section and kind of question they were, then find focused practice questions to work on those exact weak spots.

TIPS & ADVICE

- Create a study schedule: Set up a daily study schedule for yourself. Make it a goal to practice for one hour every day, either in the morning or after school.
- Practice papers: Free practice papers available online or a paid one such as Exam Happy that I used are extremely helpful in adjusting to the test.
- Timing: Once confident, try timing yourself.
- Separate notebooks: Designate one (at least) notebook for just 11+ notes or one for each section.
- Stay positive: Be consistent, put FULL effort and you'll do great!

CONCLUSION

Preparing for the 11+ exam requires a lot of dedication and effort. By understanding the exam format, making use of the resources available to you and implementing preparation tips, you can significantly enhance your chances of success. Remember, the 11+ is just one step in your academic journey. Believe in your potential, stay focused, and give it your best shot! Good luck!

COULD YOU HELP CHILDREN LEARN AND GROW?

Recent census figures show that the 1st Berryfields Scout Group has increased by over 16% in twelve months. This is due to Scouting providing over 250 activities ranging from air activities to cooking, emergency aid to global issues and pioneering to water activities, leading to more children and young people hearing about these and saying, "How can I join?" The high numbers of children and young people wanting to join is due to the amazing programmes organised by volunteers.

With full sections, the Group has more than 100 young people who want to join the Group. The solution to being able to take them off the waiting list and into one of the sections is for more adults to volunteer.

Steve, Lead Volunteer for the Group said, "The Group provide a wide range of activities which the children and young people enjoy. We are looking for volunteers to help with Squirrels (ages 4 to 6), Beavers (ages 6 to 8) Cubs (ages 8 to 10), and Scouts (ages 10 to 14)."

There are also opportunities for people to volunteer for roles in the background. This could be with fundraising, trustee, administration, IT or just helping out when needed."

Volunteer Nigel said, "Volunteering with Scouts is a great opportunity to help young people learn and develop skills along with having fun and trying out new activities. It's also a great opportunity to learn and develop new skills yourself, make friends, try new activities and take pride in seeing young people develop."

He added, "As volunteers we can help put the foundations in place. We then encourage the children and young people to build upon them as they try new activities and learn skills for life. Children and young people want adventure, and we provide the opportunity to have those adventures. The increase in numbers shows we are providing activities and opportunities that young people want to do."

Nigel added, "Volunteering with any of the sections allows you to see changes in the character of young people, see them becoming more confident and see them coming out of their shells. As a volunteer, we can be a role model for children and young people. We can help them learn values and skills, have experiences, opportunities and challenges and interact face to face with others. We can help children to learn and grow and we can create experiences for young people."

For further information about any of the sections or volunteering, please contact Steve at steve@1stberryfieldsscouts.org.uk

VICAR'S CHRISTMAS CHEER

by Revd Gareth Lane

Dear fellow Berryfielders,

I know it's only October but already plans are a foot for the Christmas season. I know my sister will already have bought her Christmas presents, and family have already asked us what we're doing on Christmas day. Christmas is a season that many of us look forward to, and some of us are more forward planners than others! The shopping centres are already a buzz full of music and decorations; there will be TV adverts; then the Christingles; Nativity Plays; visits to Santa's grotto etc... the excitement of gifts; reconnecting with family. Behind it all lies a profound message of hope, love, and the promise of a brighter future.

Two thousand years ago, in a humble stable in Bethlehem, a child was born who would go on to change the course of history. His arrival wasn't by chance but part of a long-foretold plan, deeply rooted in the prophecies found throughout the Old Testament. Jesus' life exemplified compassion, forgiveness, and unconditional love—the very principles we hold dear and celebrate during this season. While Christmas has its foundations in Christian faith, its message transcends religious boundaries. It speaks to the universal values that connect each of us as human beings, regardless of our background, culture, politics or beliefs.

In a world that more recently seems so divided, let Christmas be a reminder that we are, indeed, one community. May the joy of the season's message fill your hearts, and the warmth of love surround you and your loved ones. As we exchange gifts and share meals, let us also extend a hand of friendship to those living around us, fostering a sense of unity that goes beyond any differences.

At Christmas join us for Berryfields Carols on Sunday, 7th Dec at Berryfields Green, and Carols Round the Crib on Tuesday, 23rd Dec at AVA Primary Hall; and if you'd like to learn more about Jesus and His message, feel free to connect or visit us on Sundays at 10:30 am at AVA Primary School Hall.

On behalf of Church on Berryfields, we wish you peace, love, and blessings this Christmas and New Year.

AYLESBURY'S TOP HOLISTIC WELLBEING EVENT IS COMING TO BERRYFIELDS!

Aylesbury's premier holistic wellbeing event is coming to Roman Park Hall this November. The Aylesbury Mind Body Spirit Wellbeing Show takes place on Sunday 23rd November 2025, from 11am to 5pm. The event, organised by Deer Spirit, and previously held at the Grange School, offers residents the perfect opportunity to recharge before the final seasonal rush. On the day, visitors can look forward to a relaxing, restorative experience. They can pick up some unique Christmas gifts and connect with like-minded individuals.

A Mind Body Spirit Wellbeing Show brings people together to explore new ideas, discover alternative therapies, and enjoy uplifting experiences. The Deer Spirit shows and fairs – which also take place in Thame, Leighton Buzzard, Woburn and further afield – have become a staple of the local wellbeing calendar. Each event blends the mystical with the practical. The shows are always full of welcoming, friendly exhibitors who go out of their way to make visitors feel comfortable – whether visitors are attending for the first time or have been coming to the events for years. "The atmosphere is relaxed, the community spirit strong, and the focus is always on offering tools and insights to support balance in mind, body, and soul," says Deer Spirit organiser, Julie Fenn.

At the Aylesbury event, the exhibitor line up is always a diverse and inspiring. Tarot, psychic and shamanic readers offer guidance and insight; holistic therapists and wellbeing experts provide treatments and advice. An array of retailers will be selling crystals, jewellery, handmade crafts, spiritual gifts, and wellbeing products. Throughout the day, visitors can also enjoy a programme of talks and workshops covering spirituality, self-development, healing, and esoteric practices.

"The show provides a rich blend of shopping, learning, and self-care experiences all under one roof," Julie Fenn says. Julie, herself an author, Reiki Master and Spiritual Teacher, will be showcasing her own range of spiritual, holistic and wellbeing books at the event.

There are many benefits of attending a Mind Body Spirit Wellbeing Show. For some it's about finding that perfect crystal or a thoughtful, unusual Christmas gift. Others come along to try a therapy session, discover a new healing technique, or listen to an inspiring speaker. Many visitors simply come to soak up the positive energy, enjoy some "me-time," and leave feeling lighter and more refreshed.

"It's the perfect chance to enjoy a relaxing day out, to take a little time for yourself before the festive season begins." Julie Fenn says. "The vibe at the Aylesbury show is always wonderful, friendly, warm and uplifting. Come along and be part of Aylesbury's premier wellbeing event."

'A SPACE TO GROW' by Kevin Roberts

I am currently studying Photography at Arts University Bournemouth (online), and my latest assignment involved creating a photographic series based on a local site. I chose the Berryfields Allotments, inspired by personal history. My dad has tended his own plot for over twenty years, and memories of watching him dig, tie beans, repair sheds, and share produce remain vivid. Photographing these allotments honours his dedication and celebrates the quiet, enduring value of these local spaces.

Visually, the allotments are captivating, featuring weathered tools and handmade structures that offer rich textures and colours. They tell stories of a slower, purposeful rhythm, creating intimate spaces where time stretches and nature is embraced.

The assignment brought me joy in many ways. On a personal level, it enabled me to slow down and be present. Standing in the middle of a sunlit plot, camera ready, waiting for just the right moment, I discovered a calm I hadn't anticipated. It also renewed my appreciation for community—these spaces are filled with small acts of kindness, shared advice, and generous gestures. But most importantly, it gave me the chance to listen. The conversations I had while taking photos were often more powerful than the images. People opened up about their love and passion for their allotments, and their reasons for being a plot-holder are as varied as the plots themselves.

As the assignment approaches its conclusion, I reflect that it isn't just about vegetables and compost; it's about people, resilience, care, and joy. It's about the quiet victories that happen on ordinary patches of land. And I feel incredibly fortunate to have been invited to photograph it.
